Interview Summary

Sir:

This paper is provided in response to the in person interview held with respect to the present application.

On July 31, 2008 an in person interview was held between Examiner Singh and Nathan Rau (attorney for the Applicant). During this interview the present application and cited art was discussed. Further, co-pending application No. 11/249,748 was discussed as well. The Applicant indicated to the Examiner that following amendments to the present application, a statutory double patenting issue was now present in the cases. In response to the double patenting issues the Applicant indicated that a number of claims would be cancelled from the related application to overcome any double patenting issues. The Applicant wishes to thank the Examiner for taking the time out of her busy schedule to meet with us, and invites her to contact the undersigned for clarification on any issues in the present application.

If this response is not considered timely filed and if a request for an extension of time is otherwise absent, Applicants hereby request any necessary extension of time. If there is a fee occasioned by this response, including an extension fee that is not
